Jackspeak The Royal Navy has a heritage all of its own. It is a lingo as mysterious as the Language of Flowers and as fascinating as the Language Of Stamps, but it is a closed book to the most erudite civilian and double dutch even to the most expert lexicographer. 'Jack Speak' - A Sailors Dictionary | GUN PLOT Then I discovered JackSpeak. The Royal Navy has a curious habit of pretending its shore establishments or 'stone frigates' are ships. With training establishments, this apparently odd behavior helps the trainees to feel at home or rather 'at sea'. On 'concrete ships', the RN talk about raising the gangplank (closing the gates) and
