The New Testament and the People of God: N. T. Wright ... The New Testament, then, contains those writings that reveal the content of this new covenant. The message of the New Testament centers on (1) the Person who gave Himself for the remission of sins (Matt. 26:28) and (2) the people (the church) who have received His salvation. Thus the central theme of the New Testament is salvation. 2 2.

Introduction to the New Testament The New Testament, as usually received in the Christian Churches, is made up of twenty-seven different books attributed to eight different authors, six of whom are numbered among the Apostles (Matthew, John, Paul, James, Peter, Jude) and two among their immediate disciples (Mark, Luke). The New Testament was not written all at once. New Testament In the New Testament, Greekis sometimes a general term for all who are not Jews. Historically, the Greeks descended from four separate groups-the Achaeans, Ionians, Aetolians, and Dorians-which immigrated into Greece and replaced the civilization that previously existed.

Each group settled in different regions of Greece. New Testament People Groups In the preface and introduction to this book Simmons stresses the importance of the general context of the New Testament. He suggests that when groups such as the Pharisees and Sadducees are mentioned, the authors assume their readers are aware of a number of things about these groups. Peoples of the New Testament World The New Testament discusses the teachings and person of Jesus, as well as events in first-century Christianity. Christians regard both the Old and New Testaments together as sacred scripture.
