The following items from Winchester College Archives are now available to consult and search on-line: - Manuscript Registers of Scholars, 1393-1964 Winchester College | Digital Archives Winchester College was founded in October 1382 by William of Wykeham, Bishop of Winchester, for the education of seventy scholars. He had also founded New College in Oxford in 1379 and the aim was to provide an educated clergy that served both church and state. His specific aim was to replenish the administrative class depleted by plague in the 1340s and 1360s. At Winchester, building commenced in 1387 and the first scholars entered the school in 1394. About | Winchester College Winchester College has a long reputation for community service. No person is more responsible for this than the remarkable Mrs Clare Talks, Geography don and Director of Community Service. Here she provides a refreshing insight into the environmental impacts of an unseasonably warm Spring and a tranquil, undisturbed lockdown. Winchester College | 13+ Entry Winchester doesn't seem to publish the Election Roll, but I'm pretty sure all boys to get scholarships at Eton in recent years have been at prep school or international school. I'd be surprised (and interested) if Winchester were much different in that regard, despite the differences in their exams. WINCHESTER Scholarship examination | Mumsnet Winchester College is an independent boarding school for boys in the British public school tradition, situated in Winchester, Hampshire. It has existed in its present location for over 600 years. It is the oldest of the original nine English public schools defined by the Clarendon Commission, seven of which were regulated by the Public Schools Act 1868 Winchester College - Wikipedia The full number of 70 scholars was not filled up until Waynflete's last year as Provost, 1446–1447 (Eton Audit Roll). Bishop of Winchester [ edit ] So greatly did Waynflete ingratiate himself with Henry that when Beaufort, bishop of Winchester, Henry's uncle, died on 11 April 1447, the king wrote to the chapter of Winchester, instructing them to elect Waynflete as bishop. [14] William Waynflete - Wikipedia The scholarships for schools are set before the Common Entrance. I believe the Winchester election is the last of the scholarships held before Common Entrance in June. Scholarship candidates usually don't have to sit Common Entrance as well, even if they don't achieve an award: their scholarship papers are used to assess them for entrance.
